

Ryerson University
School of Disability Studies

Presents

An Evening of Disability Culture

Ryerson University

July 18, 2001

An Evening of Disability Culture

Programme

Welcome and Introductions

Part One

Jane Field

Accompanied by Eve Goldberg

"Everything I sing is based on true life experience.
There's no need to invent absurdity; we just have to recognize it."

Part Two

Comedy with Attitude

Performed by Alan Shain

"Are all wheelchair-people related to each other?
Do they ever think about sex? You'll probably learn just a little bit more than you really wanted to know."

Part Three

Mixed Nuts

Presented by Misery Loves Company Co.

Featuring Binnie + France + Heather Emme + Lance
Romance + Melanie Buckle + Nilani

Directed by Lucy Costa + Tristan Whiston

A mixed assortment of lived experiences, seasoned with the salts of truth. No Preservatives.

Part Four

Spirit on the Muuve

Performed by Spirit Synott

"We all have something to offer if we choose to live, to be in the moment and even to take it to the limit because no one else can do that for us."

Refreshments and Conversation

Produced by

Ryerson University
School of Disability Studies

Special Thanks To...

ASL Interpreters:

*Catherine Fairbanks
Kate Lewis*

Programme Support:

*Steve Hotston
Rose Jacobson
Margaret Ng
Phil Pang
Melanie Panitch
Oscar Rojas
Patricia Seeley
Jamie Wilson*

Thanks also to:

*Misery Loves Company Co.
Toronto Theatre Alliance
Ryerson University Access Centre
Ryerson University Media Centre*